Sub: Dry Ports of PSWC in the State of Punjab.

Dear Exporters;

APEDA has received the following information from Punjab State Warehousing Corporation (PSWC):

On the subject, kind attention is invited to the fact that the Punjab State Warehousing Corporation (PSWC), a State Govt. Undertaking, largely engaged in the activities of procurement and storage of notified commodities, is also a custodian of Customs Notified Dry Port facilities (CFS/ICD) in the State of Punjab at Ludhiana (Dhandari Kalan, 1990), Jalandhar (Nurpur- Dhogri Road, 1990), Amritsar (Chheharata, 1993), Bhatinda (Industrial Growth Centre, 2000) and Dappar (Chandigarh-Ambala NH, Dera Bassi, 2002). Presently, these Dry Port facilities are fully equipped to offer customized handling, transportation and storage solutions for the containerized export/import merchandize emanating/arriving from /to the hinterland along the importers and exporters' supply chain under Customs' supervision.

As an organized logistics player, the PSWC intends to embark upon regional market by penetrating and extending its array of Dry Port facilities having vast infrastructure, to meet all the logistics requirements of various State-run organizations including APEDA for their entire import/export merchandise.

Exporters interested in using PSWC facilities as mentioned above may please contact:
