Order for implementation by the Certification Bodies accredited under NPOP

Certification Bodies (CBs) accredited under National Programme for Organic Production (NPOP) may please note that any operator who has been imposed with suspension by any Certification Body due to violation of NPOP requirements and irregularity notifications issued by the European Commission shall not be permitted for registration and certification during suspension period and until reinstated after ensuring the compliance..

Any operator who has been terminated by any Certification Body due to violation of NPOP requirements and irregularity notifications issued by the European Commission shall not be permitted to get No Objection certificate (NOC) to migrate for registration and certification by any other Certification Body.

At present, the following exporters have been imposed with disciplinary measures due to irregularity notifications:

1. Orchid Exim India (P) Ltd
2. Shyam Industries
3. Raj Food International
4. Accura Enterprise
5. Unjha Agro Company
6. Agri Food Products
7. K V Agro Products
8. Dhaval Agri Export LLP
9. Veerral Agro Tech
10. Organic Products India
11. Amrutva Fine Foods
12. Aatish Industries

Certification Bodies may note that they should regularly check the alerts generated on Tracenet system on suspension or termination of any operator. The alerts may be taken into consideration while registering any new operators even if as fresh applicant.

As and when Irregularity Notifications are issued and disciplinary measure has been imposed against any operators, Certification Bodies shall not transfer such operators to any other Certification Body with NOC, in order to prevent any further irregularity against them. In case of such violation, stringent action will be taken.

This issues with the approval of Competent Authority.
